“ I worked with Camil for a few years at Lucidity Lights and found him to be a dedicated, resourceful, and bright engineer. He always wore a smile and had a positive "can-do" attitude. I am saddened to hear of his untimely death and wish to express my deepest condolences to his family.

“ Camil was a most loving husband, father and friend. He was so very devoted to his boys in everything they pursued. Camil was right there on Day 1 of Mark's piano lessons. He brought him to my studio every week and waited patiently while both Mark and Sebi had lessons. He accompanied the boys to Musical Achievement Evaluations as well as numerous recitals. Whether it was music, sports or academics, Camil encouraged his sons to strive for excellence in all. He also had a delightful sense of humor which I think the boys have inherited. He will be sorely missed, a prince of a man. Catherine Johnson
