“ I'm so sorry you are gone. I enjoyed our chats on Facebook and will miss them. I wish you could have made that trip back to Florida you wanted. I would have liked to have seen you in person again. It took us 50 or so years to get together, a long time since we were roommates at the YWCA and went to Jones. I know by all the wonderful comments I have read you will be missed by all. I am so glad you were able to make your trip last year to see your family. I hope you have found peace.

“ I remember when Charlotte first moved in across the street she was the friendliest person that our village has had for a long time. She invited me into her home for opinions on her decorating she was such a bubbly person always laughing about things, I am so sorry that I didn't get to know her better we had planned on going out to lunch and shopping typical women stuff, I am really going to miss you I only wish is that I could give you one last hug. Charlotte may you rest in peace and I know God has put his arms around you and giving you his love.
