“ She always leaned to watch for us,
Anxious if we were late,
In winter by the window,
In summer by the gate,
And tho' we mocked her tenderly,
Who had such foolish fears,
The long way home would seem more safe
Because she waited there.
Her thoughts were all so full of us;
She never could forget;
And so I think that where she is
She must be watching yet.
Waiting till we come home to her,
Anxious if we are late -
Watching from Heaven's window -
Leaning from Heaven's gate.
