“ Where do I begin Jeremy? You were such a sweet little boy and I was so happy the first day you called me Mama. You were and will always be my boy. Even when things went to the wayside, I never stopped loving you or worrying about you. We stayed in touch over the years and no matter what our conversations ended with I love you. The last we talked was the best conversation we had had in so long and I was so happy to have that memory with you I never dreamed it would be my last. Jeremy I will always love you and miss you and look forward to the day I can see you again. I will love you until my last breath. Love you always, Mom

“ So very sorry for your loss! There has been so many posts of great memories and fun times shared these past days.. he has made a great impact on so many people. Everyone is sharing funny stories, happy times, silly stuff like that big bike he made and singing a song while peddling it. I haven't seen one bad comment. He will be forever in everyone's hearts that had the pleasure to meet him! Rest In Peace until we meet again

“ He was so lucky to have you and Grampy Donnie in his life.I know how much you meant to him and how much he loved you.

Deb - July 27 at 11:55 AM

“ The first time I saw Jeremy he was about 1 1/2 years old. From that day forward he spent a lot of time at Grampy and Grammynenna's. We had so many good times and made so many wonderful memories. Sadly I haven't seen him for several years! But he called a every so often and Always said I love you and I would answer I love you too. I will miss him for the rest of my time on this earth, but will always have my memories. With Love Jeremy from Grammynenna!

“ You were the most naturally funny dude I ever met. When I look back I don't have a single memory with you were we weren't laughing. So many funny adventures. You made up funny catch phrases 20 years ago I still use to this day " MAAAAAAAAN! " " Clerk Clickin Merk Mickin " " Waaaaaaaall Warkas! " " Get Stuh from the Puh in the Buh " ”

I miss you something fierce my friend and I will take these memories with me till we meet again.
