“ My Mother Mildred, Norma's sister once told me that whenever she & her sisters would get together at Aunt Norma's home.. She would bring out a large box of assorted chocolates & ask if anyone would like a chocolate... When my Mom looked into the box of assorted confections she noticed all of the tops had been bitten off.. So she said no & everyone said no... My Mom said this was Aunt Norma's way of seeing what flavor the chocolates were & a good way to keep them all to herself... I laughed
